1. Competition Outline

What's the HIRAKU 3MT Competition?

The HIRAKU 3MT Competition is an exciting opportunity for Doctorate students to effectively explain their research within a limited time-span of three minutes, in a language appropriate to a non-specialist audience. The Competition aims to develop the Doctorates' presentation and research communication skills, while leading to broader society (as the audience) further enhancing their positive understanding of doctorate resources and researches.

The Competition has been held as a part of the initiatives of the consortium program, "Home for Innovative Researchers and Active Knowledge Users \(HIRAKU\)" (Lead Organization: Hiroshima University, Co-Partner Organizations: Yamaguchi University and Tokushima University), with the aim of promoting the advancement and development of young researchers through regional collaboration. The HIRAKU 3MT Competition has been held annually since 2015, with this year being the 6th edition of the Competition. It will be conducted entirely online this year, expanding the scope of the eligible participants to all doctorates in Japanese universities.

Eligibility

Doctorate students (from any research field) enrolled at any domestic university in Japan as of November 21, 2020 (*).

*Excluding students enrolled in master programs and/or professional degree programs.

Number of Divisions

2 (Japanese and English).

Competition Stages

The Competition will be held in the following two judgement stages in each division:

- The Semi-Final Stage - pre-recorded video presentation (Late October 2020)
- The Final Stage - online live presentation (Saturday, November 21, 2020)

(Application Deadline: Monday, October 12, 2020).

*Approximately ten presenters for each division will be selected (10 for Japanese, and 10 for English).

Prizes

● Winner

The Winner of each division will receive a certificate, a ¥300,000 scholarship, and more.

● Runner-Up

The Runner-Up of each division will receive a certificate, a ¥150,000 scholarship, and more.

● People's Choice

The People's Choice (to be decided by the Audience Polls) of each division will receive a certificate, a ¥80,000 scholarship, and more.

*In addition to the above, several video presentations from the Semi-Final Stage will be selected for a Sponsor Award, (these awards will be specifically titled after the special sponsors' names).

Early November: Finalist and the Sponsor Award winners selection

Late October: Semi-Final Stage (video presentation screening)

October 12 (Mon): Deadline for Video Upload:

September 1 (Tue): Start of Video Upload

Semi-Final Stage (video presentation)

- The Judging Panel will conduct the screening of the videos in late October to select the Finalists.
- The HIRAKU 3MT Operating Office (the Competition Office) will publish the name list of the Finalists on the official competition website in early November. The Competition Office will also e-mail the Finalists only (i.e. non-Finalists will not be contacted).
- Several video presentations will be selected for a Sponsor Award in early November. The Competition Office will invite those recipients to the Award Ceremony which will be held on Saturday, November 21.

Final Stage (online presentation)

- The chosen Finalists will participate in the Final Stage by accessing the Zoom link designated by the Competition Office.
- Every presentation and Question-and-Answer Session will be separately held within the Japanese and English divisions in the following order:
  - 1. Online Presentation (3 minutes): The Finalists will present by following the rules and regulations in the “4. Rules and Screening of the Presentations”, “5. Judging Criteria” and “6. Video Editing” sections within this guideline.
  - 2. Question-and-Answer Session (2 minutes): The Finalist must answer each question within 30 seconds.
- The spoken content of the presentation for the Final Stage can be different from the one from the submitted video, (i.e. not word for word). However, the presentation title and slide must be the same as they are in the submitted video.
- The Judging Panel (see “4. Rules and Screening of the Presentations”) will select the Winner and Runner-Up for both the Japanese and English divisions. The People’s Choice for each division will be decided by Audience Polls and confirmed by the Judging Panel.

4. Rules and Screening of the Presentations

Rules of the Presentations

The Rules of the Presentations are for both the Semi-Final Stage (video presentation) and the Final Stage (online presentation).

- Presentations are limited to 3 minutes. Presentations are considered to have commenced when a presenter starts to move his/her body/mouth in order to give the presentation. Presenters who exceed 3 minutes are disqualified.
- No additional props (e.g. costumes, musical instruments, laboratory equipment, and animated backgrounds) are permitted within the presentations.
- Presentations are to be spoken word (e.g. no poems, raps or songs).
- A single static slide in 16:9 (width : height) is permitted in the presentation (no slide transitions, animations, sounds/videos, or 'movement' of any kind).
- Please respect copyrights and portrait rights of others when editing the presentation slide. If necessary, please indicate the source of the materials.
- The Competition Office won't accept any replacement file/s of the slide after the application deadline has passed. Please make sure to carefully consider the application deadline date when applying.
- Please confirm to your academic supervisor or any other appropriate parties in advance whether the content of the slide can be shared/published or not. The Competition Office shall take no responsibility for any trouble concerning the content of the presentation.

Screening of the Presentations

1. Semi-Final Stage (video screening)

The Judging Panel will conduct the screening of every video to select the Finalists. In addition, the Special Sponsors will select the Sponsor Award recipients.

*In the event that the number of applications is quite substantial, the Competition Office may screen the presentations by region.

2. Final Stage (online judgement)

The Judging Panel (detailed below) will select the Winner and Runner-Up for each division.

The Audience Polls will select the recipient of the People's Choice in both the Japanese and English divisions. Each audience member must register beforehand to be able to observe the Final Stage.

Judging Panel

There will be an Judging Panel for each division (Japanese/English). The Panels will consist of university/enterprise officials, experts, amongst others, invited from within and outside of Japan.

Details and the latest news on the respective Judging Panels will be announced on the website below.

http://home.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/hiraku/event/competition\_2020/judgingpanel/

5. Judging Criteria

1. Semi-Final Stage (video screening)

At every level of the competition, each competitor will be assessed by the Judging Panel according to the judging criteria listed below. It is based on the Judging Criteria for the Virtual UQ 3MT Competition 2020, Queensland, Australia.

*About the 3MT: The Three Minute Thesis (3MT®) Competition was developed by The University of Queensland (UQ).

Nowadays, 3MT is held at over 900 universities across more than 85 countries worldwide.

(<https://threeminutethesis.uq.edu.au/>)

< Attractiveness of Research Theme and Content >

- The presentation title and slide are clear and straightforward in describing the content of the presentation. Furthermore, their contents extract the attractiveness of the presentation itself.
- The presentation provides an understanding of the background and significance of the research question being addressed.
- The presentation conveys the enthusiasm of the presenter for research and makes the audience want to know more about the research.
- The presentation clearly describes the impact and results of the research, including conclusions and outcomes.

< Communication >

- The wording used for the presentation is understandable and proper for everybody, (avoiding the use of technical terms, etc.).
- The presentation is well structured and follows a clear and logical sequence.
- The presenter is careful not to trivialize or generalize his/her research.
- The speaker has sufficient stage presence, eye contact and vocal range; maintains a steady pace, and has a confident stance.

2. Final Stage (online judgement)

The Judging Panel will use the aforementioned criteria to judge the presentations. Furthermore, the Panel will also judge the Question-and-Answer Sessions according to the criteria below.

< Question-and-Answer Session >

- The presenter clearly answers each question concisely and to the point.

Moreover, the audience members (general citizens, university/enterprise officials, amongst others) will poll each presenter according to the criteria below.

- The presentation describes the vision and the importance of the research. Also, the presentation develops a response from the audience toward the presenter and the content.
- The presenter intrigues and excites the Audience with their presentation.
- The result and the approach of the research seems novel, and amazes.
- The presentation is easy to understand by everybody within the audience/general public.

6. Video Editing

Please refer to the “4. Rules and Screening of the Presentations”, “5. Judging Criteria” and “6. Video Editing” sections within this guideline to clearly understand how to edit the video of your presentation. Feel free to use any video editing platform you are familiar with.

Good Examples

① Using Zoom: Adjust your slide to be the background image (16:9-widescreen) within the Zoom settings (as a full screen image or only a part of the screen). Set up your shot so you are in a specific position within the display and record the video. Make sure that the contents of the slide are clearly viewable/readable when you adjust it for use as a background. Also, make sure to record your face clearly in the video.

② Record the video, then edit the slide into it. Another option is to have a monitor/screen with your slide behind you and use it to record your presentation. Make sure that the contents of the slide are clearly viewable/readable when you adjust it for use as a background. Also, make sure to record your face clearly in the video.

<Some Examples of Video Editing Tools >

- KAPWING
- VideoPad\(NCH\)

Bad Example

- Slide is too small to read the words and/or view the pictures/ diagrams.
- Difficult to recognize facial expressions.

- Presentations are limited to 3 minutes. Presentations are considered to have commenced when a presenter starts to move his/her body/mouth in order to give the presentation.
- The 3 minute presentation must be continuous with no video edits or breaks, except when forming the beginning and ending of the video.
- The screening of the quality of the video is not included within the Judging Criteria.
- Adjust the size of the slide to be at least 25% of the full screen or fill the slide in the background of the video. Please refer to the descriptions of the “Good Examples” and “Bad Example” on this page in regard to the recording and editing of your video.
- The viewable space for the video, not including the presentation slide, must be pattern-less and use any monochromatic color.
- Set up your shot so you are clearly in the frame, and not being cut off at the top (visible from the waist up) throughout your presentation. Make sure your face is in front of the camera and is clear. Record your video in a bright room so that the audience can clearly see you.
- Set up your standing position in a way that secures the space needed for the slide.
- Adjust both the slide and the video in 16:9-widescreen, and save the video as an mp4 file.
- Upload the edited video onto YouTube. Enter the YouTube link in the Application Form after setting the video as “Unlisted”.
